

COSTAR ANNOUNCES NATIONAL POWER BROKER AWARDS

NAI Sullivan Group's Susan Davis Jordan and Robin O'Grady Recipients

OKLAHOMA CITY (Aug. 11, 2009) – NAI Sullivan Group's Susan Davis Jordan and Robin O'Grady were selected for national honors by CoStar this summer as being "Power Brokers" in 2008 based on leasing and sales transactions in Oklahoma City.

CoStar Group, a leading independent information provider for the commercial real estate industry, and Real Estate Forum, a prominent industry trade magazine recently presented these awards to Susan Davis-Jordan and Robin O'Grady. CoStar Group tracks data on commercial properties and transactions throughout the United States, United Kingdom and France.

"Being publicly noticed on a national level is a huge honor and I appreciate Susan and Robin's hard-work," said Bob Sullivan, CCIM, owner and CEO of NAI Sullivan Group. "We take pride in handling the commercial real estate needs for our Oklahoma City businesses and both Susan and Robin should be proud of their achievements."

Susan Davis Jordan, CCIM, broker associate with NAI Sullivan Group, along with this year was also awarded Power Broker last year by CoStar making this the second year in a row she has received this honor.

"It's so exciting to receive the Power Broker award these past two years," Jordan said. "I am committed to providing our clients with top-notch service, and to be awarded by my industry twice is a huge honor."

Robin O'Grady, broker associate, who received the "Top Sales Volume" award in 2007 for her accomplishments, is being awarded for the first time by CoStar as a Power Broker.

"I'm thrilled CoStar is awarding me for my success at NAI Sullivan Group this past year," O'Grady said. "I look forward to building upon my experience and passing that along to our clients this upcoming year."

The Power Broker awards are presented annually to the top brokerage firms and individual agents in major U.S. markets based on their leasing and sales transaction activities the prior year.
