TULSA — BOK Financial Corp., parent of Bank of Oklahoma, earned nearly $1 million a day in profits during the second quarter. The Tulsa banking company posted net income of $85.1 million in the three months ending Sept. 30, compared with $69 million in the same period last year.

CEO Stan Lybarger attributed the gain to commercial loan growth combined with robust fee and commission revenue. The company, which paid a 27.5-cent dividend during the third quarter, will boost that to 33 cents for its next payment, scheduled for Nov. 30.

BOK holdings include BOSC Inc., Cavanal Hill Investment Management Inc., and Southwest Trust Co. Its operating divisions include Bank of Oklahoma, the state's largest bank; Bank of Albuquerque; Bank of Arizona; Bank of Arkansas; Bank of Texas; Colorado State Bank and Trust; Bank of Kansas City; and the TransFund electronic funds network.
