

Construction set to start on House of Bedlam in Bricktown

Construction is set to begin next month on the House of Bedlam development in Bricktown. The project by USA Screenprinting owner Chris Johnson, is set to include a cafe, gift shop, 30,000 square feet of retail space and street-level parking on both sides of the Bricktown Canal.

BY STEVE LACKMEYER slackmeyer@opubco.com  0
Published: January 31, 2012

Construction is set to begin next month on the House of Bedlam development in Bricktown. The project by USA Screenprinting owner Chris Johnson, is set to include a cafe, gift shop, 30,000 square feet of retail space and street-level parking on both sides of the Bricktown Canal.

Lateria Allen, general manager for the House of Bedlam, said Monday the cafe and store, which will specialize in selling University of Oklahoma and Oklahoma State University apparel and other local sports items, is expected to open in October.

Show / Hide Comments

Open by default

Ads by Yahoo!

Gold Stock to watch

Billionaire invests big into GOLD stock chicagofinancialtimes.com/SAGE

Buy Fine Art Photos

Selected Photo Art Prints direct from artist; many limited edition
www.visionlightgallery.com