

Coyote Ugly Saloon Coming to Oklahoma City

New and exciting businesses are always finding their way into Bricktown. With the addition of the NBA introducing the Oklahoma City Thunder, there is sure to be an even stronger draw for residents looking for entertainment.

A bustling building shelling out entertainment for years is the Miller Jackson Company building stretching down the Bricktown Canal in the heart of Bricktown. According to NAI Sullivan Group's Brad Baker the Miller Jackson Company is expecting a new high-profile tenant in the likes of the Coyote Ugly Saloon, as featured in the hit reality TV show, "The Ultimate Coyote Ugly Series" on CMT and major motion picture, "Coyote Ugly."

Baker, an office specialist, concentrates his transactions on those located in the Central Business District and Mid-Town. The transaction was completed three weeks ago and will involve a 4,300 square foot lease with a scheduled opening of the Coyote Ugly Saloon set for March 2009.

The Coyote Ugly Saloon currently has 12 nationwide locations. The first saloon opened in 1993. Visit the www.coyoteuglysaloon.com for more information on the franchise.

To view Brad's bio visit

<http://www.naisullivangroup.com/agentdetail.asp?AgentID=27>

NAI Sullivan Group

Commercial Real Estate Services, Worldwide.