Oklahoma ranks lucky No. 13 in Site Selection magazine's Top Business Climate for 2011 list.

The state's ranking rose from No. 23 last year.

The annual ranking, reported in the magazine's November issue, is determined 50 percent by a tax climate criterion and the states' performance in Conway Data's New Plant Database, which tracks new and expanded business facility activity, and 50 percent on a survey of corporate site selectors.
